

TRANSCRIPT OF RECORDS

1. PARTICULARS OF THE STUDENT

1.1. Family name:

1.2. Given name:

1.3. Place of birth (country, city):

Date of birth:

1.4. Data related to student status:

Starting date of student status:

Designation of student status:

(Expected) end date of student status.

1.5. Student identification number:

Neptun code:

2. DATA RELATED TO THE PROGRAMME

2.1. Name of programme:

2.2. Level:

2.3. Type of programme:

2.4. Language of the programme:

3. Data pertaining to the requirements satisfied in the course of the programme, in a breakdown according to the programme periods

Subject code	Subject name	Requirement	Lessons per week (W/ semester (S))	Credits	Result	Semester	Transfer	Date

Subject code	Subject name	Requirement	Lessons per week (W)/ semester (S)	Credits	Result	Semester	Transfer	Date

If the number of lessons includes "/" signs, i.e. it is given in the format LE/PR/LA, then these figures indicate the number of lectures/practical seminars/labs.

The grading is in a five-point system:

excellent (5) - the student's knowledge covers the entire material and inner relationships within the same;

good (4) - the student knows the material and is capable of applying that knowledge;

medium (3) - the student knows the essential parts of the material, and is capable of applying that knowledge adequately;

low pass (2) - the student knows the essential parts of the material, and is capable of applying that knowledge at a still acceptable level;

fail (1) - the student is unable to prove that he/she knows and is capable of applying the essential parts of the material.

Qualifications - High pass (JMF), pass (M) or did not pass (NMF)

Pass/no credit - signed (A), not signed (NA)

Total number of credits earned: [redacted]

Total number of credits transferred: [redacted]

Credits earned per semester, grade point averages:

Semester	Number of credits registered	Number of credits earned	Stipend index	Corrected credit index	The aggregate corrected credit index	Credit index	Corrected academic average	Corrected weighted academic average

4. AUTHENTICATION OF TRANSCRIPT

Debrecen, [redacted]

LS
